Individual Progress Report

Project Title: StudySync: UIC Peer-to-Peer Study Matchmaker & Note Repository
Name: James Reino A. Allawan
Progress Report Date: September 29, 2026

Date	Accomplishments	Notes
Sept 21, 2026	Created the interactive Figma prototypes and wireframes to simulate screen transition logic and user navigation flows.	Built clickable wireframes to validate interaction paths before beginning code implementation.
Sept 24, 2026	Set up the base project repository, development environment configuration, and foundational app folder structure.	Established clean repository conventions and dependencies to ensure smooth feature development.
Sept 27, 2026	Translated Figma designs into initial Flutter UI code, building base screen layouts and styling primary components.	Ensured frontend layout structures strictly match the visual specifications defined in the UI design.
Sept 29, 2026	Implemented initial state management and foundational interactive functionalities for core screen components.	Successfully wired basic button actions and screen logic for early functional testing.
